

Sin

WELCOME

Last week we talked about the Beginning and how God created every living thing and that includes us. We are His absolute favorite creation! Everything that God created was good and beautiful. I know that we have talked before about making bad choices. Just like we learned about the beginning of creation, there is also a beginning of bad choices and sin.

So, let's READ STORY FROM the Jesus Calling Bible Storybook.

I love the verse that is included with this week's story. Let's read it together: "No power in the sky above or in the earth below – indeed, nothing in all creation will separate us from the love of God." Romans 8:39. Sin separates us from God, but God had a plan to rescue the world from sin. All of the stories that we will talk about in the Bible are showing us that God has always had a plan to rescue us from sin. How great is that? What this sneaky snake had planned cannot separate us from God's love. Always remember that God created man so that we could have a relationship with Him.

MEMORY VERSE – Let's work on our new memory verse.

Even though we are not in class together, you can still do many of the things that we usually do together. I am including our coloring sheet, craft and worship songs for your parents to download.

- Show coloring page
- Show craft – dry erase board

Mom & Dad: Here are a couple of things for you. These are some more of my favorite books that I think you would enjoy reading together as a family:

Let There Be Light – Danielle Hitchen

This is a simple book of opposites but what makes it so unique is that a scripture is included with each one. In fact, there is a series of books – “Baby Believer” that you might want to check out.

I hope you have enjoyed today’s story and know just how much Jesus loves you! I love you too and can’t wait to see you again!!

Adam and Eve disobey God.

Genesis 3:1-24

Adam and Eve disobey God.

Genesis 3:1-24

Adam and Eve lived in a wonderful garden. There were trees and plants with good food like apples, bananas, grapes and watermelon. There were flowers and trees and plants that were beautiful to look at.

In the middle of the garden was a tree called the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God told Adam and Eve they could eat anything in the whole garden except the fruit that was growing on that one tree.

One day, a serpent talked to Eve and told her to eat the forbidden fruit. "If you eat some of that fruit, you would know things you didn't know before," the snake said. "You would be like God."

Eve listened to the serpent. She ate some of the fruit from the tree that God said not to eat from. Adam ate some, too. God was very sad that they had disobeyed Him. Adam and Eve had to leave the beautiful garden, but God still loved them very much.
